LONDON, OCTOBER 8.

IT was on Saturday morning reported, that letters from Lisbon have brought advice, that the King of Portugal had caused it to be notified in express terms to the French and Spanish ministers, that it is not his intentions to adopt any measures, which may oblige him to break through his treaties with Great-Britain.

Friday night some dispatches arrived at St. James's, from her Royal Highness the Princess Dowager of Wales, at Saxe-Gotha, which, we hear, brought advice, that her Royal Highness had postponed her departure for England, till the latter end of this month.

We hear from Vienna, that a Great Personage who travels, and is now there, under the title of Earl of Connaught, was waiting in expectation of meeting Lord Bute at that place, and that from thence they were to make a visit to his mother.

The number of seamen now propoled to be engaged in his Majesty's service, together with those already in actual service, will amount to 24,000 men.

His Majesty's ship the Thames, of 32 guns, at Plymouth, is put into commission, and the command of her given to Captain Locker.

Captain Farmer is appointed to the command of the Tamer, put into commission at Deptford.

The Tartar, of 28 guns, at Deptford, is put into commission, and the command of her given to Captain Glover.

Richard Peters, Esq; is appointed Register of the Vice-Admiralty court of the province of Pennsylvania.

OCTOBER 9.

Yesterday morning arrived at St. James's, Mr. Potter, the courier, with dispatches from the court of Spain. The contents of his papers were laid before his Majesty and the privy-council yesterday evening, and will be communicated to the public as soon as possible.

It is said the Spaniards sent great quantities of ordnance and ammunition, during the courte of last year, to Carthagena, from whence they were conveyed across the Isthmus of Darien, to Panama; from which place they supplied all their forts on the Eastern shore of South-America, and the Philippine islands.

A body of North-American merchants is now employed in drawing up their case, which it is said will be submitted to the immediate inspection of his Majesty.

Letters from Paris inform, that papers of a very rebellious tendency had been dispersed about the streets, and found posted up in the most public places of the city, in which even the character of Majesty itself was not spared.

John Dalrymple, Esq; is elected Lord Provost of Edinburgh. Alexander Simpson, Esq; is elected Provost, Sheriff, and Coroner, for Perth. And Patrick Maxwell, Esq; is elected Provost for Dundee.

OCTOBER 10.

The particulars of Mr. Potter's embassy have not transpired; but we can assert from good authority, that the answer from the court of Spain is by no ways satisfactory; it is dubious and haughty; and of such a nature, that we don't hesitate to pronounce that a war with Spain is certain and unavoidable. The public will be made acquainted, we are assured, with all that has passed between our court that of Madrid, in a few days; and that a declaration of war will take place very soon.

The French are alarmed at our negociations and conduct, and mean in a few days to expostulate warmly on the part of Spain by some new delegate.

Bets ran 30 to 20, and 10 to 6, on Monday night, at the Smyrna, that there would be a war with Spain, within three months.

The public will never believe but that something more than merely frighting the French is in prospect; for, according to the orders for fresh preparations received every week at the docks, it should seem they have an intention of fighting them too.

Though almost every measure indicates the certain prospect of a war, there is one circumstance which staggers the belief of some politicians.—Ships are appointed after ships, and frigates after frigates; but not one commander, or experienced officer, is yet appointed, that could be trusted to navigate a British fleet even round the Streights.

We are well informed, that not the least application has been yet made to the court of Lisbon in the affair of the merchants; nor is any intended to be made till the controversy with Spain is settled one way or another.

The last advices from America say, that for two months past the most perfect tranquillity reigns through the provinces there; and that the inhabitants were determined to remain so till the meeting of the British Parliament, when they will make one effort more for their libertits, by means of their agents.

Governor Bernard will never more return to America in any character, either public or private.

We learn from the best authority, that a privy-council will be held in a few days, for the sole purpose of taking into further consideration some important matters relating to the augmentation of the army.

CHARLES-TOWN, DECEMBER 6.

IT is almoſt certain, that, at the intended General Meeting of the Inhabitants, under Liberty-Tree, on Thurſday next, very little Oppoſition will be offered, ſhould a Diſſolution of our ſubſiſting Reſolutions be then propoſed; the People of this Province being no longer ambitious of continuing the only ſerious Perſons in the very contemptible Farce lately acted throughout the Northern Colonies of this Continent: But it is almoſt as certain, that they will enter into a ſolemn PROTEST; and that the LANDHOLDERS, &c. will endeavour to promote a NEW Aſſociation, to anſwer all the Ends of the ſtricteſt ſumptuary Laws.

It is thought by ſome here, that, although other Colonies have departed from their Non-Importation Agreements, this Province might ſtill continue theirs to great Advantage, by adding to the Articles allowed to be imported, the few following, viz. Beer, Cheeſe and Potatoes, in Preference to the ſame from our Northern Neighbours; coarſe bread Cloths, Serges, Dureys, Callimancoes, Fuſtians, brown checked and ſtriped Linens and Cottons, not exceeding certain fixed Prices; Iron Pots and Cutlery Ware; Paper, Paints & Glaſs; Needles, Pins, Sad-irons, coloured Threads, ſewing Silk, and Twiſt; checked Handkerchers; Sail Twine, Bed Ticken, and ſuch Materials for Tradeſmen in different Branches, as they cannot poſſibly carry on their Buſineſs without.

Although the People of Rhode-Iſland reſolved anew, in Auguſt laſt, againſt the Importation of Britiſh Goods, and have boaſted that they held out longer than any Colony in America, except South-Carolina; yet we find, in a late Newport Mercury, a Number of Advertiſements, of fine, very fine, large, complete, and moſt faſhionable ASSORTMENTS of European and Eaſt-India Goods, for Sale, imported in the Snow Triſtram, Capt. Shand, arrived there from London the 19th paſt——The Maſk being thrown off!

We have ſeveral Letters from Correſpondents this Week, ſome of which are altogether improper for Publication; others cannot appear in their preſent State, and ſome we have not Room for.—One of them ſays, if the Importation of Negroes is reſumed, the Province is poſitively ruined; but does not ſupport his Aſſertion with the beſt Reaſons, which ſeem to have eſcaped his Notice.——Another hopes, if we are obliged to give up our Reſolutions, that we ſhall reſolve not to purchaſe any dutiable Articles.——Another, that we ſhall import every Thing, leſt the Parliament of Great-Britain ſhould impoſe Duties on Negro Cloth, Hoes, &c. and all the Articles we want moſt.——Another, recommends the forming a Society for the Encouragement of Arts, Agriculture, and Manufactures, by giving large Premiums, for the moſt in Quantity, and beſt in Quality, raiſed or made in this Province, of every Article for which the Northern Colonies have hitherto drained us of immenſe Sums in Specie.

By Capt. Gregory, in Six Weeks and three Days from Weymouth, we are informed, that the Ruſſian Fleet had paſſed the Dardanelles and were bombarding Conſtantinople; that the Ruſſians, on the Side of Bender, had totally defeated the Turkiſh Army; and that the moſt vigorous Preparations continued to be made in all the Ports of Great-Britain for a naval War, inſomuch that the Merchant-ſhips were every where laid up for Want of Seamen—which accounts for our having no more Veſſels here at this Time.

On Tueſday returned here, from Philadelphia, in the Britannia, Capt. Eyres, Mr. Alexander Michie, of this Town, Merchant, and Mrs. Michie; Lieutenant George Robinſon, of His Majeſty's Ship Fowey, and Mrs. Robinſon; Archibald Baird, Eſq; Collector of His Majeſty's Cuſtoms, for the Port of George-Town, &c.
